

PRIVACY STATEMENT

Baktec B.V. respects the privacy of its business associates and users of our products and services. Baktec B.V. only processes personal data insofar as this is necessary for the proper performance of its services.

Baktec B.V. does not provide personal data to third parties, unless required to do so by law or unless the person whose data is being processed grants his or her own consent.

If Baktec B.V. makes use of external service providers in the performance of its tasks, Baktec B.V. requires these external service providers to comply equally with the legal framework concerning the protection of personal data.

Baktec B.V. ensures proper security of all personal data by taking suitable organisational measures and deploying modern technical IT facilities.

If there are any changes to our privacy statement, we will publish the amended statement on our website.
